

Communication about youth requires permission due to confidentiality issues. If the youth is 18 years old or older, he/she may give permission. If the youth is 17 years old and younger, permission is required from a parent or guardian. Examples of possible individuals with whom communication may be desired or necessary are potential employers, teachers, social workers, doctors, or therapists.

I, the undersigned, give _____ permission to communicate in person, by phone, or email on the behalf of _____(Youth) with _____.

Youth's Name (Print)

Youth's (Signature) (if over 18 years old) Date

Parent/Guardian (Signature) (if youth is under 18 years old) Date

Date of Expiration
OR one year from date of signature